

I can't wait to get a good winter sleep!

I ♥ GLOBE

There are four birds'
nests in my crown.

I remember your grandma playing here.

JOIN THE CHALLENGE

TREE REPORTERS

AND GET TO KNOW YOUR TREE BETTER

You may have already observed how a nearby tree grows and changes through the seasons. But do you really know it? Find out all its secrets. Join one of the two challenges organized by the GLOBE Europe and Eurasia Regional Office and become a Tree Reporter!

TREE MAGAZINE, TREE TV

Interview a tree. The topic of the interview is up to you, but keep in mind to make it attractive for the listener/reader.

---

SEPTEMBER - DECEMBER

- Submit your interview through an online form by December 31.
- Follow the requirements and receive a GLOBE certificate.
- The best contributions will be presented at "The Best of GLOBE Europe & Eurasia" a virtual event on 4-5 February 2025.

TREE MAGAZINE

INTERVIEW YOUR TREE AND CREATE A PAGE FOR THE "TREE MAGAZINE"

- Create a visually attractive page using PowerPoint, Canva, or any other online tool. Alternatively, send us a picture of your hand-made page. Use landscape orientation.
- Introduce yourselves as GLOBE Reporters and include a picture of your team with your tree.
- Focus on using visuals and images to make it attractive. Keep the text brief and in English.
- Send us your page as an image (JPG or PNG) or as a PowerPoint file.
- Send us a signed media release form from each adult and a parent of each student shown on the photos.

TREE TV

RECORD YOUR CONVERSATION WITH A TREE IN A MAXIMUM 1-MINUTE LONG VIDEO.

- Don't forget to introduce yourselves as GLOBE Program Reporters.
- You can record your video in English or in your own language. In both cases, add English subtitles or write down the transcript of what was said in the video.
- Send us a media release form signed by each adult and by the parent of each student in the video.
