

Lend a Helping Hand to Nature

ANDREJA VLAHOVIĆ GABRIŠA, MILAN LANG PRIMARY SCHOOL, BREGANA, CROATIA

KOSTANJEVICA NA KRKI, 31.5.2025

Milan Lang Primary school

- Eco school
- Erasmus+ accredited school
- School development plan:
- Making our school more international
- Improving students and teachers' language and digital competencies
- Working on ecological values and educating ecologically aware young people

Lend a Helping Hand to Nature

Our third Erasmus+ project

Aims:

- to raise ecological awareness
- to teach students how to separate waste properly
- to create awareness about the reuse of things
- to use digital tools effectively

The Erasmus team

Conducting surveys

Analysing data

Creating a plan of activities

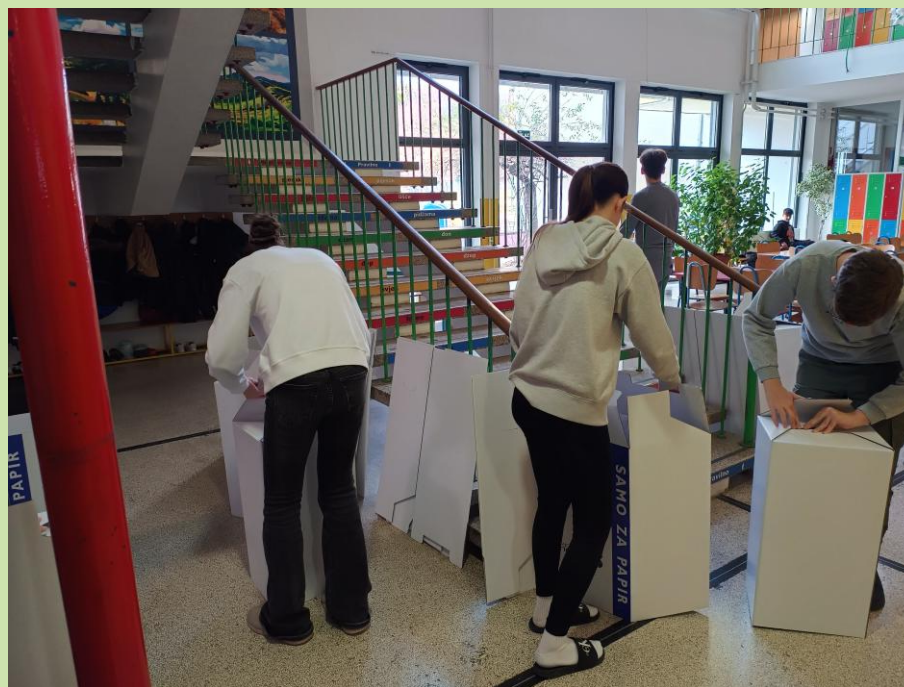

Changing the school appearance

Changing the students' mindset

Carrying out project activities

Activities: paper and plastic waste containers, batteries container

Clothes, books, toys and school supplies exchanges

- Saint Nicolas' Day
- Christmas
- Saint Valentine's Day
- Easter

Student mobility – Budapest, Hungary

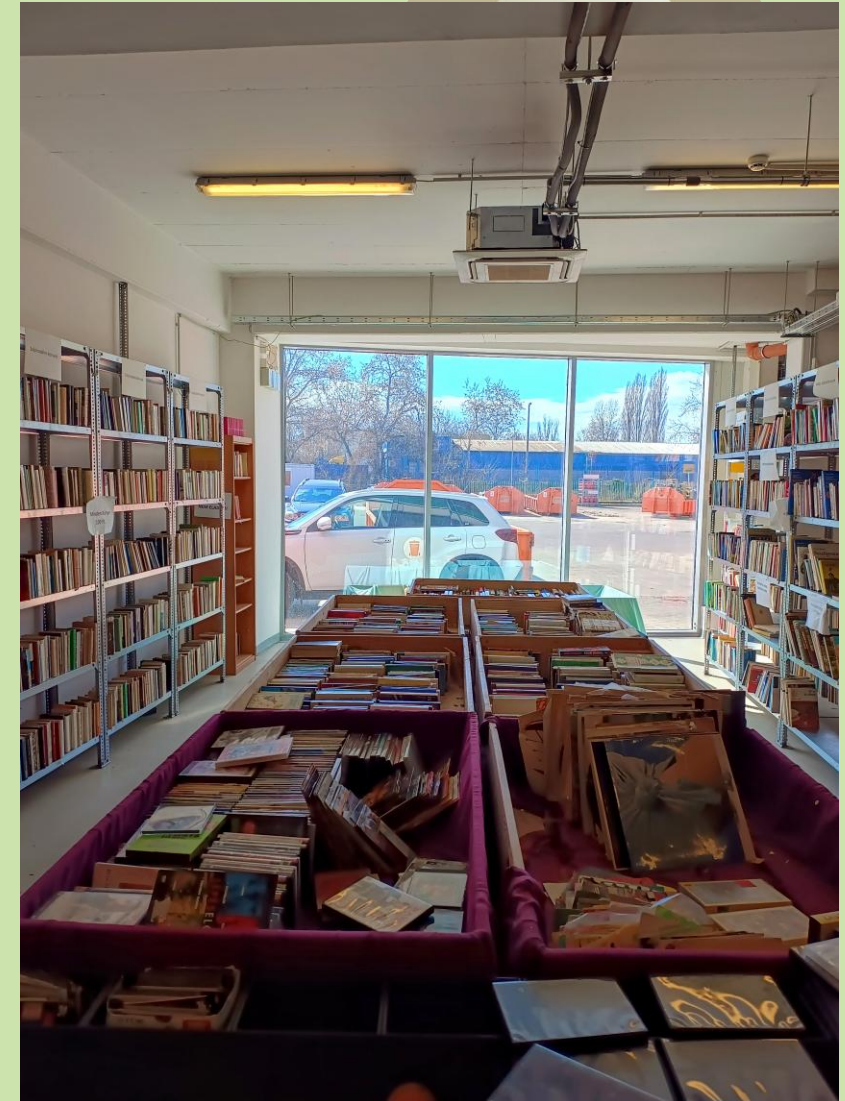

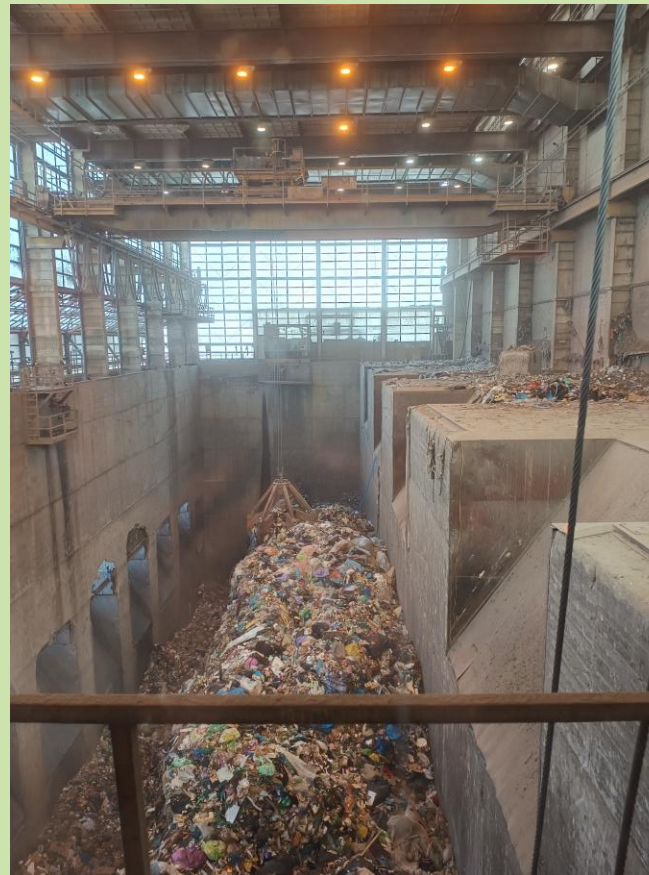

MARCH 2025

HOST SCHOOL - DR. SOMOGYI IMRE BAPTISTA ÁLTALÁNOS ISKOLA, GIMNÁZIUM ÉS SZAKKÉPZŐ ISKOLA

Budapest waste energy plant and recycling yard

Drawing comparisons and finding examples of good practice for our town and the capital
Zagreb

Student and community participation – raising ecological awareness, educating new European citizens

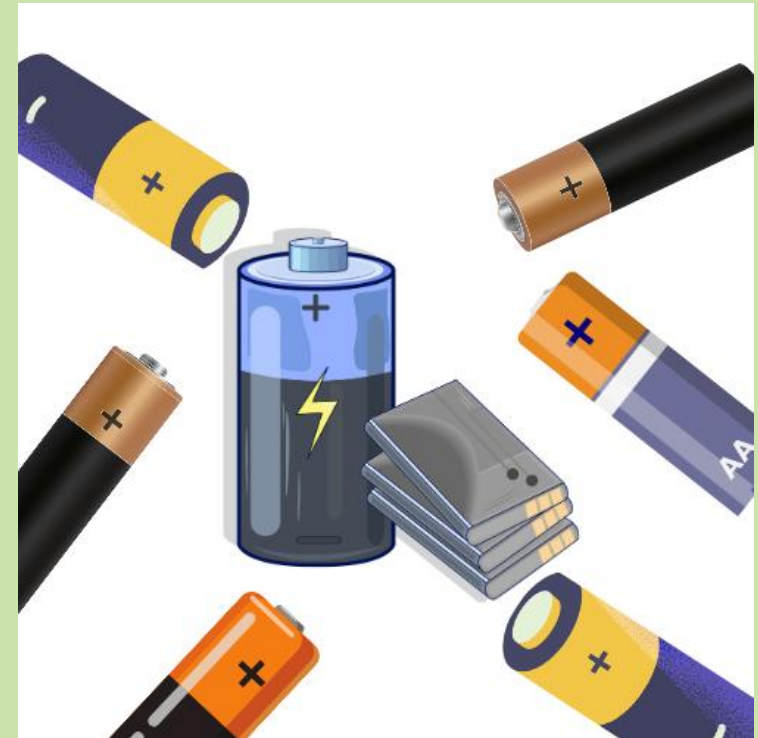

Digital tools – Canva, Microsoft forms

Project activities documented on Ruku pruži, prirodi služi Google site

Erasmus+ projekt OŠ Milana Langa

Evaluation

Thank you for your time and attention!

Presentation evaluation - Lend A Helping Hand to Nature

